放送を聞いて答える問題２

これから読む英文は，中学生の健二（ Kenji ）が，留学中にアメリカの学校で，授業を受けたときのものです。この英文を聞いて，(1)，(2) の問いに答えなさい。なお，英文は２回読みます。

英文を聞く前に，まず，(1)，(2) の問いを読みなさい。

では，始めます。

Hello, everyone. I am Mr. Brown. I teach fine arts at this school. Today I'd like to tell you how to paint pictures well. OK, please look at this picture. There are three parts in this picture; the sky, a mountain, and trees. Can you guess which part should be painted first? Some of you may think you should paint the trees first. But it is better to paint the sky first. Why? Because the sky is brighter than the mountain and the trees in this picture. After the sky, the mountain should be painted. Finally, you should paint the trees because they are the darkest part of this picture.

Now you know an important rule. Don't use a dark color like black first. If you use a dark color first, it is difficult to change the color later. But if you use a bright color first, you can easily change the color later. Please remember this rule. Then you will be able to paint pictures well.

3 次の英文は，和夫（Kazuo）が，岐阜を訪問する外国からの旅行者（tourist）について，インターネットで調べてグラフ（graph）と表（table）を作り，英語の授業の時間に発表したときのものです。1 ～ 3 の問いに答えなさい。

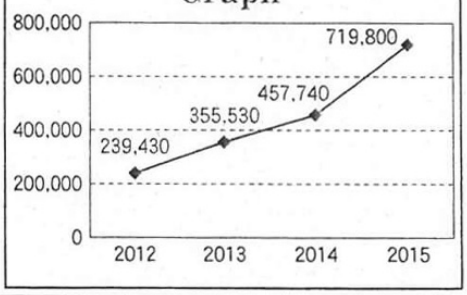

Last summer, I enjoyed watching cormorant fishing in Gifu with my family. I was very surprised to see that many tourists from foreign countries also enjoyed it. I talked with them and found that they came from five different countries. My father said, "These days, we have more and more foreign tourists in Gifu." I was interested in his words, so I used the Internet to learn about foreign tourists in Gifu. I'm going to talk about this.

Look at the graph first. This graph shows how many foreign tourists came and stayed in Gifu. You can find that the number of foreign tourists became larger between 2012 and 2015. Especially, you can see a great change from 2014 to 2015.

Where did these tourists come from? I was really interested in the people I met in Gifu last summer, so I made a table about the five countries which they came from. In the table, you'll see how many tourists visited and stayed in Gifu from each country in 2015. You can see that the number of Chinese people who came to Gifu is much larger than the number of people from the other four countries. Maybe many Chinese people came to Gifu because China is near Japan. So which country comes next? You may think Korea comes next because Korea is also near Japan. But when you look at the table, you'll find that about 300 more American people visited Gifu than tourists from Korea. You can also find in this table that the number of tourists from France is less than half of the number of American tourists. I want more tourists from France and India to visit Gifu.

There are many interesting and beautiful places in Gifu. I'd like to do something to have more foreign tourists in Gifu. For example, I [①]. I hope Gifu will become their favorite place to visit.

Hiroshi : You look happy today, Ms. White.

Ms. White : Yes, Hiroshi. Do you want to know why? Look at this.

Mika : Does that paper have good news?

Ms. White : Yes, Mika. This is an e-mail from my grandfather in America. He says that he has just started living with his new friend. Her name is Judy. She is four years old. She helps him every day. He also says in the e-mail that Judy has actually changed his life.

Hiroshi : I'm afraid that I don't understand what you mean. A four-year-old girl living with your grandfather helps him?

Ms. White : Actually, Hiroshi, Judy is not a 'girl'. Please look at this picture ① that my grandfather sent with the e-mail.

Mika : Oh, Judy is a dog! She is very cute.

Hiroshi : So your grandfather has started keeping a dog as a pet. In the picture, Judy is playing with your grandfather's shoe, and he is smiling.

Ms. White : Well, Hiroshi, Judy is not a pet-dog but a service dog.

Hiroshi : A service dog? I haven't heard of that. How about you, Mika?

Mika : Hiroshi, do you remember we learned about assistance dogs in our social studies class last year? Assistance dogs are given special training to help people with disabilities. In Japan, there are three types of assistance dogs; guide dogs, hearing dogs, and service dogs. I read in a book that a service dog can help its owner to get up from his bed, to take off his shoes, and even to call his family on the phone.

Hiroshi : Wow! Service dogs are really (②). Then, is Judy trying to take off your grandfather's shoe in the picture, Ms. White?

Ms. White : That's right. My grandfather uses a wheelchair. Service dogs are able to help people who use wheelchairs. His e-mail says that Judy opens doors for him, carries his bag, and sometimes pushes elevator buttons when he goes out. I believe he enjoys his life every day because (③).

Hiroshi : Now I understand why your grandfather said, "Judy has actually changed my life." Well, Mika, can you tell me a little more about service dogs in Japan?

Mika : Sure. I heard that there are about seventy or eighty service dogs in Japan now. Japan has a law which helps the owners of service dogs. The law says that the owners can stay at hotels, go into restaurants and get on trains with their service dogs.

Ms. White : In America, we have the same kind of law which gives people the right to live comfortably with their service dogs.

Hiroshi : How many service dogs are there in America?

Ms. White : My grandfather told me that there are more than two thousand service dogs in America. But we need more because there are still many people with disabilities waiting for a chance to have service dogs.

Mika : More than two thousand? So many? I think we should start to do something to get more service dogs in Japan.

Hiroshi : I think so, too. It is important to make our friends interested in service dogs. If they find how necessary it is for people with disabilities to have service dogs, our friends will also try to do something to get more service dogs in Japan.

Mika : I agree. But how?

Hiroshi : I have an idea. I'm going to take part in the English presentation contest next month. And in my presentation, I can show that service dogs are wonderful members of our community.

Ms. White : Hiroshi, how nice! For your presentation, I will ask my grandfather to give us information about service dogs and to send some more pictures of Judy working for him.

Hiroshi : Thank you very much, Ms. White. Please say "Thank you" to your grandfather and his cute friend for me!
