平成 26 年度高等学校入学者選抜学力検査問題(英語 2)

(答えは，すべて解答用紙に記入しなさい。)

2 次の英文は，久美子(Kumiko)が英語の授業で，発表したときのものです。1 ～ 6 の問いに答えなさい。

Last month, a student from America stayed at my house for a week. Her name was Judy. We became good friends during that time. I think our good friendship started from her first greeting. When I met her for the first time, she bowed and said, "Hajimemashite." Her greeting was very polite and gave me a good impression. I felt that she wanted to be friendly to me, so I wanted to know more about her.

That week, we did a lot of things together. At school, she met some of my friends. She introduced herself and bowed in the Japanese style. My friends smiled and then they ① [her / to / started / some / ask] questions. She soon made new Japanese friends. Judy and my family members went shopping to buy some traditional Japanese things. At home, we cooked Japanese food. She tried to learn some Japanese words. She practiced them many times. I was able to enjoy talking with Judy in Japanese and in English. During her stay, she was like (②).

On our last day together, I said to her, "Judy, your first greeting in the Japanese style gave me a good impression. I wanted to know more about you [ ] I could see that you wanted to be friendly to me." Judy said, "Thank you, Kumiko. My father lived in Japan for one year and found that Japanese people bow when they exchange greetings. Then he noticed that bowing is a good way to give a polite impression in Japan. So he told me to bow when I exchange greetings in Japan."

Judy's words taught me that I can begin to make friends by exchanging greetings. If I visit a foreign country, I will learn greetings in that country's style. I can try to give other people the same feeling that Judy gave me. Thanks to that feeling, Judy and I (③).
